SELECTIONS From the Editorial Columns of

THE MEMPHIS APPEAL

BY ALBERT PIKE.

It is proposed to publish, in an estavo vel ame each, two works entitled as above, if a sufficient number of subscribers can be of tained to assure the publishers against loss.

The first work was in part published in the Appeal in 1867, Whether is or the second is worth publishin it is for these who have been readers of the Appeal to decide. A desire has been expressed J. P. STRANCE. by misny to have them in a more enduring form, and the author, unable to publish them himself, consents that they may be published. if that desire is sufficiently general to war
